Technical and Instructor Support

Although your course is designed to be taken on your own time and at your own pace, know that you are not alone. Our support team is available seven days a week to offer technical support and address any of your questions or concerns. Contact us by phone, email, or chat. From within your course, use the Support link for contact details.

For content-related questions, the support team may put you in touch with an instructor, the curriculum team, or other subject matter experts. Inquiries or questions received outside of standard hours of operation will be answered within 24 hours.
